

A diagram illustrating a shaded triangular region. The region is filled with a diagonal hatching pattern. It is bounded by three straight lines. Two vertices of the triangle are marked with black triangles pointing towards the interior. The third vertex is at the top right. A small white triangle is located near the top left boundary of the shaded area.